

Industrial Hygiene Field Technician

Summary: As a member of environmental project teams, conducts environmental site surveys and writes client reports under the direction of a project manager. Maintains required technical knowledge and professional certifications. Works collaboratively with other project team members to achieve project deliverables.

Responsibilities:

- Conduct asbestos, lead-based paint, and hazardous materials surveys and air monitoring services for various clients located in the Midwest region.
- Write client reports that convey sound professional methodology, conclusions and recommendations.
- Collaborates with other departments and outside agencies including high-level public and/or private contacts.
- Maintains the technical knowledge and professional certifications needed to perform job duties.
- Performs other duties in relationship to the department operations.

Requirements:

- A high school diploma or equivalent is required. A two-year college degree or greater in a related field is preferred
- Experience in surveying sites for asbestos, lead-based paint, and hazardous materials, air monitoring, and/or mold investigations
- Ability to plan, prioritize, and organize diversified workload
- Proficiency with standard computer programs, such as, Microsoft Word and Excel.
- Ability to interact and communicate effectively with individuals at all levels, both internally and externally
- Asbestos and Lead certifications are highly desired
- Must be willing to travel up to 50%
- Must successfully complete a pre-employment physical, drug screen and background check

Employee Status:

- Full-time, Non-exempt

Benefits

- Medical, Vision, and Dental Health Insurance
- Health Savings Account
- Life Insurance
- Disability Insurance
- Voluntary Insurance: Accident, Critical Illness and Hospital Indemnity
- Paid Holidays
- Paid Time-off
- Employee Assistance Program
- 401K Retirement Savings Plan with a Company match